

Coach Adina Lederer Announces the Grand Opening of her New Office in Bogota, NJ

New workspace will allow Coach Adina to provide better service to her clients in the community.

Bogota NJ – July 25, 2008 - Adina Lederer, ACPI-Certified Coach for Parents and Families, is proud to announce the opening of her new office in Bogota, New Jersey. Coach Adina's practice is located at 100 East Main Street – at the corner of Palisades and East Main Street within Kids' Therapy Place, LLC – a full-service pediatric Occupational Therapy practice.

By drawing on her years of experience as a parent, teacher and coach, Coach Adina helps her clients develop effective skills and strategies to deal with life's daily challenges through private consultation with both parents and grade-school-aged children. From her new office, Coach Adina is able to offer her clients a warm professional environment for private coaching sessions and also has room to host her Enhancing Motherhood workshops.

“My passion is helping families, and it is my hope that by being able to provide my coaching services from my new location, it will allow me to realize my dreams of bringing more balance and harmony to my clients' lives. I have already received enthusiastic feedback from my clients – the kids especially love my new environment.”
